

Golf Course Dress Code

Proper attire must always be worn on the golf course as well as in any golf practice area which includes the driving range and practice putting green. The dress code shall apply to adults as well as children and all guests.

Men/Boys: Golf Shirts/Polo shirts with collars and sleeves, golf pants and golf specific shorts are considered appropriate attire. Shirts are always to remain tucked in and hats are permitted if worn with the brim facing forward (no backwards ball caps). Tank-tops, tee shirts, graphic tee shirts, hooded shirts of any kind, sweatshirts/pants, gym wear, bathing suits and denim will not be permitted.

Women/Girls: Golf dresses, golf skirts/skort, golf pants and golf specific shirts including sleeveless (must have a collar) are considered appropriate attire. Halter-tops, tee shirts, cut-offs, sweatshirts/pants, yoga pants, swim wear, sun dresses, gym wear, tennis skirts and denim of any kind will not be permitted.

Men/Women Shoes: Golf Shoes and “Running” Shoes are permitted on the Golf Course. Street shoes, boots, athletic spikes, dress shoes, flats and heels of any kind are not permitted.

Clubhouse Dress Code

Proper attire must always be worn inside the Clubhouse including the Bar, Dining area and patio area. We have adopted a “Golf Leisure” Style that allows members, their family and their guests to feel welcome, comfortable and casual yet still promotes a clean look for our Clubhouse setting.

Men/Boys: Golf shirts and Polo shirts with collars and sleeves, golf pants and golf style shorts are permitted. Golf shirts, Polo shirts and “Tommy Bahamas” style shirts tailored to be worn outside of slacks do not need to be tucked in. Hats are to be removed when seated at any internal dining area. Cargo shorts, tank tops, tee shirts, sweatshirts/hooded shirts, sweatpants, swim wear, cut-offs, gym wear, shirts with numbers or printed slogans are not permitted (unless deemed ok for a specific club event. Example: Eagles Games)

Women/Girls: Golf dresses, sun dresses, skirts, pants, mid-length shorts and blouses (sleeved and sleeveless) are considered appropriate attire. Golf shirts/Polo shirts are also permitted. Halter tops, tee shirts, cut-offs, sweatshirts hooded sweatshirts or sweatpants, gym wear, swim wear, tennis dresses, athletic shorts, shirts with numbers or printed slogans are not permitted (unless deemed ok for a specific club event. Example: Eagles Games).

Denim Policy: Denim is permitted in the Clubhouse and Patio area ONLY. Denim worn as slacks, including Capri pants which is in good repair is allowed as follows: no holes, rips, tears, tatters or frays; no acid washed denim; no hand written messages, pictures or inappropriate messages; no visible undergarments, no midriff; no baggy or sagging denim or slacks; no denim shorts of any kind.
